Flirting 202

$54.00

Turn on the charm, be persuasive, kick it up a notch. Use your brains, your body, personality and sexuality to get what you want. This class is more interactive than Flirting 101 and includes pairing up for role playing and other on-your-feet exercises. You will be given one on one coaching from the date doctor on your flirting techniques. Be prepared for constructive criticism and helpful tips. We will explore the art of using clothing, props, accessories, humor and body language all in the context of luring a potential mate. Flirting 101 is not a prerequisite.
